

5.1 Profile settings

When you sign in your account, you can modify the personal information. You can find user name on the right up corner. After click user name icon, will see the personal informaiton as below.

In the profile settings includes modify user name, change password and enable 2-factor authentication. Once you enable 2-factor authentication, you have to go to your email box for receiving the confirmation email when sign in Remote Manage Cloud every time.