Network Ports Used by NovoConnect Devices

Network ports are TCP/IP-network-based device communication end points, through which the communications between a NovoConnect device and its client devices (e.g. laptops, tablets, etc.) are achieved. The following Excel sheet has all the details.

- NovoConnect_Network_Ports-2022_09_16.xls